

Happy Holidays!

Happy Holidays, 2003! My, where has the year gone? It flew by so fast! I wasn't going to send out a newsletter this year because honestly, I've just been so swamped with work and outside projects. But, it was nicely insisted that I find some time – so I have. I think this is the easiest way to keep in touch anyway, so I hope you enjoy the update.

Haley Rose Stormer

Pefferfamily.com. This year I have added a family web site. The site can be visited online at www.pefferfamily.com. What can be found on this site? Lots of pictures of our girls mostly! Please do stop by and visit and give me some feedback. My hope is to add a ton more pictures and perhaps to include Bonnie's calendars for family to download. I have my resume and samples of my work on the site as well. Please do stop by and visit. I am maintaining a few new web sites and I'd appreciate feedback on the looks of those as well.

The addition of Haley Rose. Perhaps the greatest piece of family news is the addition of Haley Rose Stormer. Haley Rose was born on October 29, 2003, at 1:38 p.m. in Westmoreland Hospital. She weighed 6 lbs. 13 ounces and was 20½ inches with blue eyes. Everyone just adores her and as you can see from her picture she is quite the cutie. Her sisters and cousins just fawn all over her and love to give her lots of kisses and hugs. Jessica and Larry honored me by asking me to be Haley's godmother. She is being baptized this December 21st. You can see a ton of pictures of Haley Rose on the family web site, www.pefferfamily.com. She has her own page! Just click on her picture at the top of the page to access it.

The Nieces. Jenna Nicole Raccor turned 5 years old on November 23rd. Jenna attends preschool 2 mornings a week. She starts kindergarten next year, can you believe it? Kelsey Lynn Stormer is not far behind. She turned 4 on November 6th. Kelsey now attends preschool three mornings a week. Emily Anne Raccor turned 3 years old on August 27th and attends the childcare program at WCCC one morning a week. And, Lindsey Anne Stormer will be 3 this March 21st. All of them are getting so grown up! They are in many activities including taking swimming classes at the YMCA. We spent a lot of time at Bubba and Papa's "beach" this summer swimming and jumping in the moonwalk Aunt Bon, Uncle Rich, Bubba and Papa purchased for Emily as a birthday present in August. The girls just love jumping in that – and Emily is such a great sharer. There are a ton of pictures of the girls online on the family web page. Please do visit to see all of their holiday pictures. All the girls look so cute!

Please drop me an email, the quickest way to catch me, at NApeffer@aol.com and let me know how you're doing. And, please do stop by our new family web site. I wish you the best this holiday season. I wish you, all of your family and friends a safe and very Happy New Year!

Love,

2003 in a nutshell. Not much has changed for me, personally in the last year. I recently did receive a promotion at my annual review. I am now the Communications Manager for the National Association of EMS Educators. Other than that one triumph, this past year has been pretty much status quo with the exception of my Ford (fix or repair daily) Focus needing much attention. It has enough problems on its own, but then in last September, while parked innocently at the Target parking lot my little parked car was smashed and pushed into two other cars while I shopped. That will teach me to shop at Target, I suppose. A month later I finally got my little red car back – but only for it to suffer further power steering trauma. I'm currently in search of a new car. I can offer this bit of advice – down with Ford and never buy from Kenny Ross!

At the Palace Theatre Christmas Show:
(L-R) Lindsey, Emily, Kelsey & Jenna

www.pefferfamily.com