

Happy Holidays 2006!

2006 In Review. This fall I began classes towards my Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership. Classes are going well and are keep me very busy. The semester ends on December 14th. So, with luck I'll keep the A's I have in each class after finals! Work has been going well. In June I attended a conference in Orlando, Florida. It was definitely nice to get away and visit Disney. The entire family is planning a trip during Easter and the kids are so excited.

Niece/Nephew News. Yes, I did say nephew!! On May 2nd, my cousin and her husband welcomed a baby boy, Zachary Jacob into their family and just three days later on May 5th

Sassy, Teddy, & Sadie

Nate and Zach

Bonnie and Rich were blessed with the addition of my new nephew, Nathaniel Broderick. Both born very healthy! I'm sure this pair will have lots in common growing up together! Jenna Nicole turned 8 years old on November 23rd. Jenna began second grade this fall. Both Kelsey Lynn, 7 on November 6th, and Emily Anne, 6 on August 27th, both began first grade this fall. Lindsey Anne will turn 6 this March 21st. She started kindergarten this fall! And, Haley Rose, just turned 3 on October 29th. She is quite the character and keeps us laughing!

Notables. The family web site is still updated regularly and can be visited online at www.pefferfamily.com. The site is full of many new pictures of our entire family. Please do stop by and visit and give me some feedback.

Lastly, I'd like to announce the addition of a new man in my life, Sinatra's Teddy Bear, a.k.a. Teddy this past October! He's now five months old. Feel free to visit the web site for pictures of him. He is a snuggly little butter bear and so sweet. He's a great pal to Sassy and keeps her busy running around. Please drop me an email, the quickest way to catch me, at NApeffer@aol.com and let me know how you're doing. I wish you the best this holiday season and, to you and all of your family and friends a safe and very Happy New Year!
