

Happy Holidays 2005!

2005 In Review. The year started off with the heartbreaking loss of my dog, Cinnamon. She was part of our family for just under 16 years. And, she is very much missed. It definitely started off the year on a sad note. Sadie certainly noticed her absence and was not herself for quite some time. The rest of the year for me personally was routine. Work at Point Park University is going very well. After a very positive review, I earned a surprising raise in salary. I hope to begin my master's of science in the Fall 2006 semester with the launching of a new program in Organizational Leadership. And, I'm always looking for new freelance opportunities. Please let me know if you have any need for event planning, publications design, or web design assistance.

Niece News. Jenna Nicole turned 7 years old on November 23rd. Jenna began first grade this fall. And, we have two new kindergarteners in our family. Both Kelsey Lynn, 6 on November 6th, and Emily Anne, 5 on August 27th, both began riding the school bus in Erie and Latrobe respectively. Lindsey Anne will turn 5 this March 21st. She attends preschool in Erie! And, Haley Rose, just turned 2 on October 29th. She is talking up a storm now! Jenna, Kelsey, and Haley shared a triple birthday celebration this fall. All of them are getting so grown up! Check out the web site for pictures of the four older girls at the Rockette's Christmas Spectacular in November. They had such a great time going to the show!

Expectations in 2006. Perhaps the biggest and best news for our family this year was Bonnie and Rich announcing the impending arrival of their first baby due May 2006. We were all very happily surprised and so excited to welcome the new baby to the family. Bonnie is doing very well.

The family web site is still updated regularly and can be visited online at www.pefferfamily.com. The site is full of many new pictures of our girls. Please do stop by and visit and give me some feedback. I also have my resume posted and samples of my work as well.

free to visit the web site for pictures of her as well as a memorial to Cinnamon. She can't replace Cin, of course, but she does a good job of keeping me so busy chasing her that I don't have time to dwell on being sad. Please drop me an email, the quickest way to catch me, at NAPeffer@aol.com and let me know how you're doing. I wish you the best this holiday season and, to you and all of your family and friends a safe and very Happy New Year!

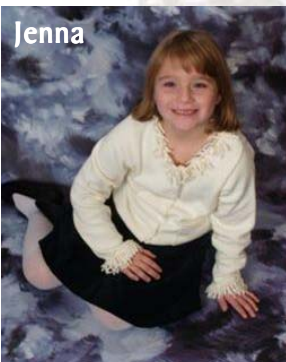

Love,

Nicole

Lastly, I'd like to announce the addition of Lil' Miss Sassafras, a.k.a. Sassy! Peet
